The Chorales are superb! Worth the price of this somewhat rare set. I originally bought because I was into the Schubler and Leipzig organ pieces (the "Great 18"). I wanted to hear the chorales that inspired the Preludes. Now I play the chorales far more than the organ preludes. For me these are very good not great versions of the organ preludes.

In the period following Johann Sebastian Bach's death in 1750, apart from the publication of The Art of Fugue in the early 1750s, the only further publications prior to the 1790s were the settings of Bach's four-part chorales. In 1758 Friedrich Wilhelm Marpurg was the first to start preparing a published edition of Bach's four-part chorales, but in 1763 was prevented by royal duties.
