Issues of Jurisdiction

Conflict of laws (sometimes called private international law) concerns the process for determining the applicable law to resolve disputes between individuals, corporations (and in some systems the state in certain contractual relationships) in multi-jurisdictional cases and transactions. Conflict of laws especially affects private international law, but may also affect cases where a contract ...

Humanitarian Law (IHL) is the law that regulates the conduct of participants during an armed conflict. This law includes rules for the protection of victims of armed conflict, i.e those who do not or who no longer participate in hostilities, and also rules regulating the means and methods of warfare. While many of these rules are set out in the treaties codifying this branch of law, a great many of the rules, particularly those applicable in ...

Unfortunately, when it comes to the practice of law, you will find that there truly is no there there. Rather, with the practice of law, you have duties, you have rights, you have conflicts, and you have decisions that are informed largely by personal bias. Jurisprudence? Oh, yeah, that's the stuff that the brainiac legal scholars argue about.

Professor Coulson's method is to examine the principal currents of Islamic legal thought through a series of conflicting concepts. The six polarizations he has devised are revelation and reason, unity and diversity, authority and liberty, idealism and realism, law and morality, and stability and change. Although clearly relevant to general Islamic studies, this book is intended primarily as a study in comparative law. This follows the
