Throughout the world, the radish is grown liberally. They can come in many different shapes, colours and sizes but one thing they all have in common is that they are all so good to eat. This book is a compilation of recipes assembled from a variety of sources and written by many different authors which, in one way or another, all cleverly utilise the tantalising flavour of this simple food in many different ways. This recipe book has been created Under Appointment to King Ronald of Radish, the revered Sovereign of The Loyal Kingdom of Radish. In 1984, Ron Mealing, who compiled this book, published a children's illustrated story book entitled "Adventures in the Lost Kingdom of Radish" which traced various strange activities in this mythical Kingdom "somewhere out there" in which the humble radish played a very important role. Ron has commenced to bring his original creation to the "silver screen" as an animated feature film and, on the way, decided that an assembly of radish recipes into an Official Cookbook of The Loyal Kingdom of Radish was highly appropriate as a companion work to his eventual theatrical release. Interlaced throughout the book are many illustrations showing some of the earliest development of the story. Cooking, throughout the world, at times, uses some strange names for some of the things a recipe wants you to do. At the end of this book is a Glossary containing a detailed explanation of a number of these which may appear within one or more of the many radish recipes contained in this compilation.

Burnt Pancakes and Crummy Biscuits The Cookbook of home style recipes by Patricia Ann Herren. First Edition, published by Herr Speights Ventures, LLC MEMORIES OF MAMA THE FLAMES OF A HIGHER FIRE COOK A FASTER MEAL When Patricia told her sisters she was writing a cookbook in memory of their mother, they all responded, "It won't have a lot of recipes, will it?" Their mother, Juanita Woods-Herron, simply wasn't a great cook. It just wasn't her favorite thing. So, she'd crank up the flames to hurry the process along, dressing her eggs in frilly lace and burning rings around all her pancakes. Fortunately, Juanita never allowed children in the kitchen as she prepared meals, so her daughters didn't pick up too many bad habits. Out of necessity, Patricia learned to cook well on her own. Determined to make good tasting, interesting meals for her family, she took the best her mother offered and made it better, such as Pork Cake (which has become a family tradition). As a world traveler, she also collected ideas from around the world and incorporated them in her study of the art. She has now compiled what she has learned in a cookbook of home styled, southern recipes. Burnt Pancakes and Crummy Biscuits is a cookbook of good food and good humor, written by a good cook in loving memory of her mama who wasn't.

This action packed reader-grIPPING book is a gruelling harsh journey of Zimbabweans who cross borders into South Africa illegally, in search of greener pastures. Their worst nightmare is not only the crocodile infested river Limpopo that they cross, but also what they locally call Amaqumaguma, a notorious gang of thieves and contract slayers who prey on the little possessions they migrate with, rape or sodomize them and ruthlessly butcher the vulnerable in order to sell their body parts to local witchdoctors and those afar. These grisly murderers have laid into graves many lives! The ill-fated border jumpers also have to contend with vicious, ravenous predators like lions, leopards and hyenas and other such carnivores in search of easy prey. Brutal soldiers vigilantly guarding these borders for trespassers also add to their woes. Of course, these law-breaking border-jumpers have those who help them out. For a fee of a thousand five hundred rands or two hundred American dollars, the Malayisha (cross-border taxi drivers) transport them from various parts of Zimbabwe to the Beit-Bridge border post, where they are handed over to the Impisi (escorts) at secluded rendezvous outside the border posts. These Impisi are paid by the Malayisha to escort their passengers without passports, across river Limpopo right up to near Musina in South Africa where they pick them up again and take them to Johannesburg. The border jumpers however risk all these predators that hunt down anything that moves throughout the night. In the novel, we meet Themba Khumalo who had always wanted to go to the lucrative South Africa but did not have Malayisha's fees until when his father died, he inherited two of his father's donkeys and gave them to a local Malayisha as payment in kind, for the fees to take him to Johannesburg. What he did not know was that where he was going, the familiar became mysterious and the unfamiliar, gruesome and bizarre indeed! It was a place of delusion and paradox with a very thin line between life and death, as too many predatory eyes were fixed on the prey!

She has been cooking with passion for the last 40 years and she received a national award for her tasty, healthy and traditional cuisine. She was knighted for her services to the industry.ALINKA RUTKOWSKA just happened to pass by and fall in love with Malvina's cuisine. She was always very curious about what was going on in the restaurant kitchen but what she heard from Malvina most often was " fuori dalla mia cucina! ", meaning " get out of my kitchen! ". She obeyed until once she decided that even a complete cooking analphabetic like herself could at least try to replicate the masterpieces being created in Malvina's kitchen. With a pen, paper, camera and Malvina's blessing she compiled the amazing recipes and over 300 photographs into this book.
